EXPERIENCE

Video Implementation / Zigflitz Design

2005- current. As a part-time designer for the initial years, then as a freelance video agent, I did a wide range of graphic design projects ranging from print design to web design for a graphic design firm based in Seattle. My specialty within the company was in video implementation. This included creating web video, TV commercials, creating instructional video, and consulting with companies to increase web presence by means of viral videos and social media. www.zigflitz.com

Freelance Editor/Camera Operator, Pilot Video Productions

2005-2007. I worked with Rod Jacobs and his company to film and/or edit various wedding and corporate videos. Corporate clients included: Starbucks, DirecTV, Nordstrom, and more. www.pilotvideopro.com

CO-Educator, Digital Media / Yakima Valley Technical College

2004 – 2006. I co-taught with Ryan Broom the TV & Film courses at a vocational school in Yakima. Instruction included in-depth coverage and tutorials of Final Cut Pro and other digital editing tools (Motion, Live Type, After Effects, etc). We also taught basic through advanced camera techniques, lighting, storyboarding, the full pre and postproduction processes, as well as broadcasting and live news reporting (produced by our students). I worked for the school while attending night school at Heritage University. <http://www.yvtech.us/>
